

Shell Lake Sailing Club Newsletter

Just a note to tell you that the SLSC is still alive. Peter Moen has volunteered his family again this year to run all our sailing races. He will be sending out a reminder of when the Regattas will be held and also the Sat. Informal Races. For your info, the Regattas are on July 7th as a backdrop to the Shell Lake Art Show and Sept 1st as part of the Shell Lake Town & Country Days Celebration. The SIR's are on the second Sat. of the summer months. June 9th, July 14th and Aug 11th. The SIR's are free and the Regattas are usually $15.00 unless he obtains a Sponsor. These races start at noon .

We will start out this year with our Banquet on June 9th at the Lakeview Bar with everyone ordering off the menu and the club furnishing snacks like last year. I would like an indication on who might be coming so I can give the Bar an idea of how many tables to set up for us and how many snacks to prepare. We will be starting off the night with a Cocktail Hour at 6:00 P M and Dinner at 7:00 P M. The Banquet acts as an informal meeting for our members to discuss coming events. There will be a guest speaker following the dinner.

We will be having a Wine Tasting later in the year. Chip Wood is recuperating from his surgery in California and has asked Ed Fisher to head up this event in his absence. It will be based on Wisconsin Wines with a couple of home brews mixed in. I will send out a notice of the date, time and place as soon as they are determined.

The Catamaran Sailing Clubs of Wisconsin and Minnesota will be having their races on Sat. July 28th and Sunday July 29th. The sailors from both states put on a wonderful show as they are the best sailors around and have some colorful sails. If you have a boat, I would recommend that you go out and watch the races on the water. Get anchored behind a marker and watch the action.

Pick up a copy of "Destination: Shell Lake 2012 Recreational Guide". It has a lot of information along with a few sailing pictures and a similar announcement of our SLSC activities. The center page has a large picture of one of our races with Dennis Andersen sailing on the left and Peter Moen and his family sailing on the right.

Look at the back of the envelope to see if you need to pay your dues of $5.00. Last year was a free year but this year isn't.
